Yavapai County Has a New Development Services Director

At the regular Yavapai County Board of Supervisors meeting on April 20, 2022, the Board of Supervisors unanimously voted to approve Jeremy Dye as the new Development Services Director.

Mr. Dye has been serving as the interim Director since November of 2021 and has been with the County since July of 2015. Jeremy was promoted to Assistant Director of Development Services in December of 2017. He came to Yavapai County from the City of Scottsdale where he was the Streets Operations Manager and won several awards including the City Manager's Award for Excellence – "Quality Customer Service" – 2011. Before moving to Yavapai County, Jeremy also spent over 9 years as a Firefighter for the Rural-Metro Corporation, also in Scottsdale.

Yavapai County Board of Supervisors, Vice-Chair James Gregory said, "Thank you for stepping up and taking control of the Department and thank you for implementing many of the changes recommended by our recent study of the department. Your hard work is reflected in the improved customer service and newfound efficiencies of the Development Services department."

Vice-Chair Gregory went on to make a motion to appoint Jeremy Dye as the Director of the Yavapai County Development Services Department.

Yavapai County Board of Supervisors Chair, Mary Mallory, after offering the second went on to say, "Congratulations Jeremy. We are excited to see you in this position and look forward to seeing where you take this department in the future."
